Going for gold

In addition to arranging the logistics for trade fairs and exhibitions, DB Schenker fairs & events is also a big player in the field of sport events. Sport events are becoming increasingly larger, more important and more complex. Therefore, the wishes and requirements of sports associations, sponsors, media and suppliers have also increased. As logistics partner of, among others, the Olympic Games and the football World Cup we know the complexity of the events industry like no other. Whilst most people only see the front of the sporting event, our presence is strong behind the scenes.

The implementation of security systems, complex customs and excise formalities, order picking/packing and the provision of just-in-time delivery at the location are all part of our services. Not only the participants in the sporting events go for gold, so do our employees at Fairs & Events.

No matter how varied and complex your requirements are, DB Schenker Logistics Netherlands will arrange your logistics needs professionally and flexible. Are you interested in what we can offer you?
